not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our Correspondents.] THE APENES CASE. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS. DEAR SIE, - Perhaps you will permit me to make some remarks on the judgment in the case of Mr. R. A. Apenes and your leader thereon, which appear in your issue of this morning. The case is a sad one. When I was acquainted with Mr. Avenes in Shanghai no man could have lived a more frugal, industrious life (without meanness) than Mr. Apenes. He denied himself every Pakhoi for 1878-9, which contains interesting superfluity, in the hope, as I then understood, of particulars regarding the Star Anise. That the effect, at the best, is very temporary is shown in the judgment itself, which recounts that three or four years ago there was a "series" of similar cases. Yet this did not deter Mr. Apenes and others from taking therisk on what they thought "goo i information. Now look at other consequences. The law of Hongkong appears to legalize huge gambling transactions, and to put the winner in the position of saving. THE STAR ANISE .- A BOTANICAL DISCOVERY.

From the Kew Bulletin of Miscellaneous In formation we reprint the following interesting account of the true star anise of China prepared by Sir Joseph Hocker, late Director of the Royal Gardens, for the July number of the Botanical out at Naples. Magazine:-

The plant producing the true Star Anise China is here for the first time figured and de scribed. For many years the fruit so called was supposed to be that of Illicium anisatum. Linn. (see Bentl. and Trimen, Med. Pl., vol. i. t. 10) the Skimmi of Japan, or of I. religiosum. Sieb and Zucc. (Tab. nost. 3,965), supposed to be native of China, but which is identical with anisatum of Linneus and Loureiro. For an nocount of this plant, its history and characters.] most refer to Baillon's learned treatise, published in 1867, in his Adansonia (yol. viii., p. 1), and to papers by the late Dr. Hance and Dr. Bret schneider in the China Review (vol. ix. p. 283 &c.) It suffices here to observe that I. anisatum or religiosum are species with pedanoles bracteate at the base, and long spreading inner perianthsegments, and that they hence belong to a different section of the genus from I. verum. The first person to recognise the fact that neither I. anisatum of Linnwus or of Loureire could be the true Star Anise of China was Dr. Bretschneider, then Medical Officer to the Rus-P.S. From all these I. verum differs, not only in the number of parts of the flower, but as Mr. Holmes (Conservator of the Museum of the Pharmacentical Society), who has been so good as to examine thom all for me, informs me, in taste of foliage and fruit, by which alone he could distinguish them, and pronounce I. verum to be specifically distinct from all others.

With regard to Loureiro's Lanisatum, from South China under which he cites Linnaus an the Japanese Skimmi of Kempfer, it is altogether a doubtful plant. It is described as having yellow flowers, a six-leaved calyr, spreading corolle, and thirty stamens, and hence cannot be

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM A VETERAN.

As this is Jubilee year it tends to make one look back and think of the flight of time, and in many parts of Scotland. Well do I remember the first circular you sent out some nine or ten years ago. You had come to England from THE Company's Steamship America to introduce Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, and I was struck by a paragraph in which you used these words:-" Being a stranger Captain G. Costanzo, will be despatched in a strange land, I do not wish the people to above TO-DAY, the 18th of August at Noon. feel that I want to take the least advantage For Further Particulars regarding Freight over them. I felt at once that you. would never say that unless the medicine had THE OHINA & MANILA STEAMSHIP merit, and Iapplied for the agency, a step which I now look back upon with pride and satisfaction. Ever since that time I have found it by far the best remedy for Indigestion and Dyspepsis I / THE Company's Steamship have met with, and I have sold thousands of bottles. It has never failed in any case where there were any of the following symptoms: - Captain Talbot, will be despatched for the Nervous or sick headache, sourness of the stomach, rising of the food after eating, a sense of fulness and heaviness, dizziness, bad breath, slime and mucus on the gums and teeth, constipation, and yellowness of the eyes and skin. dull and sleepy sensations, ringing in the ears. heartburn, loss of appetite, and, in short, wherever there are signs that the system is North China Insurance—Tls. 285 per share. clogged, and the blood is out of order.
